Foreword

Members of the stewardship committee of a church are given the wonderful privilege of serving Christ by helping others grow in their involvement, commitment, and generosity. When you seek and follow God's will, God will direct your stewardship ministry in ways that grow disciples who live to serve and honor the Lord. God's blessings as you serve the Lord as a faithful member of your stewardship committee. We hope and pray that God uses this material as a tool to help you become more energized and effective in your stewardship ministry.

This material is provided to help equip and energize stewardship committee members to discover new and better ways of implementing their stewardship ministry. As an effective stewardship committee, you can develop a climate of giving, sharing, and serving. Through God's grace, you will challenge the members of your congregation to grow as stewards.
